

Advancing Kyoto's City Planning through Partnerships

Now taking applications for Support Memberships !

The Public interest incorporated foundation Kyoto Center for Community Collaboration established in October 1997 and entirely funded by Kyoto City. The foundation advances city planning through partnerships, by combining the strengths of residents, businesses, and the municipal government to protect and develop the beautiful city of Kyoto. The foundation is now accepting applications for support memberships for those that wish to give their financial support to the foundation's activities and aims.

Information on Annual Cost

Individual Membership      5,000 JPY
Organizational Membership   50,000 JPY

How membership fees are used

Membership fees received from the public will be used for projects carried out by the foundation, including activities supporting city and Kyo-machiya preservation and revitalization.

Application Process

Bank Transfer ▶ Please use the bank transfer form on the back of this flyer.

Consultation Window at Kyoto City Keikan Machizukuri Center ▶ Only cash is accepted.

Membership Benefits (eligible for all of the following)

- 1 Newsletter Kyo-machi Kobo sent by email/mail (4 times per year)
- 2 Information about each seminar and event
- 3 Banner advertisements on our website (limited to organizational memberships)

Concerning deductions for donations

Membership fees are considered to be contributions to our foundation based on Japanese tax law which allows the amount to be applied towards preferential tax treatment, and when doing final tax returns (kakutei shinkoku) membership fees are accepted as deductions on income taxes (shotokuzei) or corporation taxes (houjinzei). Additionally, Kyoto Prefecture and Kyoto City residents can claim a deduction in the amount contributed on their Individual Inhabitant Tax (kojin jyumin-zei) for the previous year. For corporations, it is acceptable to use general contributions in calculating financial losses.

A receipt of financial contribution will be sent after receiving the application which is necessary in order to qualify for a tax deduction.
